

2022 WISCONSIN FARMERS UNION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION for NATIONAL FARMERS UNION WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

This year, members have the option of joining virtually January 10-13, 2022, in-person January 16-18, 2022 in Nashville, Tennessee or attending both! Farmers, educators, and specialists will present on a number of subjects, including marketing tactics, USDA programs, leadership strengths, farming with family, cooperatives, and more. The in-person conference also includes a half day of touring Nashville. Learn more at <https://nfu.org/womensconference/>

Wisconsin Farmers Union is offering scholarships to cover the registration cost for members who would like to attend the National Farmers Union Women’s Conference virtual event. WFU is also offering $1,000 scholarships to cover registration cost and select other costs for members who would like to attend the National Farmers Union Women’s Conference in person. There are a limited number of scholarships.

Farming is never a one-woman job – it takes a village to run a successful operation. The 2022 NFU Women’s Conference will not only focus on the concept of agricultural community building, but it will provide attendees with their own network of women farmers and ranchers they can reach out to throughout the year and for many years in the future.

Scholarship Deadline: December 17, 2021

Submit by mail to: Wisconsin Farmers Union, NFU Women’s Conference Scholarship, 117 W Spring Street, Chippewa Falls WI 54729 or email to jryba@wisconsinfarmersunion.com with subject line: NFU Women’s Conference Scholarship

Selected Participant Expectations:

- Participate in a pre-event program orientation conference call.
- Attend all meetings scheduled on the agenda.
- Attend evening gatherings when planned.
- In person participants should:
 - Reserve and pay for travel to conference and lodging (WFU can assist with finding a roommate. If you prefer a single room, half of the room cost will be at your own expense).
 - Pay for any meals not included in conference agenda, including meals while traveling.
 - Give a report of your experience: in person at county/local meetings, and in writing (blog post, newsletter article, etc. The WFU communications teams can assist you with this).
 - Encourage others in your county or local to attend in the future.
 - Keep track of expenses and promptly send receipts to the state office within 30 days of the event. * Expenses to include: roundtrip flight, ½ of total of 2 nights lodging, mileage between your home & airport, taxi cab and/or public transit costs. Reimbursement may take up to four (4) weeks after submission of receipts. Total reimbursement limited to $1,000. *
- Virtual participants should submit for reimbursement of registration cost. Total reimbursement limited to cost of registration.

